Additional Messages for You:

If you own income-producing property, you must file a Real Property Income and Expense (RPIE) statement or a claim of exclusion unless you are exempt by law. You must also file information about any ground or second floor storefront units on the premises, even if you are exempt from filing an RPIE statement. RPIE filers whose properties have an actual assessed value of $750,000 or greater will be required to file rent roll information. The deadline to file is June 2, 2025. Failure to file will result in penalties and interest, which will become a lien on your property if they go unpaid. Visit www.nyc.gov/rpie for more information.

One City Built to Last, Compliance Notification

Benchmarking Energy and Water Use: This property may be required to benchmark its energy and water consumption for calendar year 2024 by May 1, 2025, in accordance with NYC Benchmarking Law 84 of 2009 as amended. For a detailed explanation of the requirements, please visit https://www.nyc.gov/site/buildings/codes/ll84-benchmarking-law.page

Disclosure of Energy Efficiency Scores and Grades: If your property is listed on the CBL for benchmarking compliance, it will be assigned an energy efficiency grade by the Department of Buildings per Local Law 33 of 2018. For more information, visit https://www.nyc.gov/site/buildings/codes/ll33-energy-grading.page

Energy Audits and Retro-Commissioning: This property may be required to complete Energy Audits and Retro-Commissioning in accordance with Local Law 87 of 2009 as amended. For more information, visit https://www.nyc.gov/site/buildings/codes/ll87-energy-audits-retro-commissioning.page

Greenhouse Gas Emission Reductions: This property may be subject to Local Law 97 of 2019, as amended, which sets carbon emission limits or prescriptive requirements for buildings, with the first reports due in 2025. Local Law 97 compliance, as well as issuance of associated penalties, takes place at the level of an individual building (as designated by a building identification number, or BIN), even though the covered buildings are identified by tax lots (as designated by a borough-block-lot number, or BBL). For more information, visit https://www.nyc.gov/site/buildings/codes/ll97-greenhouse-gas-emissions-reductions.page

NYC Accelerator is a free resource that helps buildings reduce energy usage and emissions to comply with local laws 88 and 97. Starting January 1, 2025, buildings must comply with both laws. The program can help you identify building improvements, access financing, and connect with service providers. For more information, visit www.accelerator.nyc/help or call (212) 656-9202.
