Additional Messages for You:

Under New York City Housing Maintenance Code Article 4, Subchapter 2, the HPD-Property Registration Fee must be paid and the appropriate form must additionally be submitted to the Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) in order to complete the required annual property registration for this property and have the building validly registered with HPD. For more information about registering your property with HPD, you may access the website <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/owners/compliance-register-your-property.page> or contact HPD's Registration Assistance Unit via email to: register@hpd.nyc.gov or by calling 212-863-7000.

One City Built to Last, Compliance Notification

Greenhouse Gas Emission Reductions: This property may be subject to Local Law 97 of 2019, as amended, which sets carbon emission limits or prescriptive requirements for buildings, with the first reports due in 2025. LL97 compliance, as well as issuance of associated penalties, takes place at the level of an individual building (as designated by a Building Information Number, or BIN), even though the covered buildings are identified by tax lots (as designated by a borough-block-lot number, or BBL). For more information, visit www.nyc.gov/dobghgemissions.

NYC Accelerator is a free resource for building stakeholders that provides them with personalized assistance to help with Local Law 97 compliance and emissions reductions and connects them with financing opportunities and service providers.
