When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction.

If you own income-producing property, you must file a Real Property Income and Expense (RPIE) statement or a claim of exclusion unless you are exempt by law. You must also file information about any ground or second floor storefront units on the premises, even if you are exempt from filing an RPIE statement. RPIE filers whose properties have an actual assessed value of $750,000 or greater will be required to file rent roll information. The deadline to file is June 1, 2021. Failure to file will result in penalties and interest, which will become a lien on your property if they go unpaid. Visit www.nyc.gov/rpie for more information.

The above referenced premises is a participant in the Department of Housing Preservation and Alternative Enforcement Program (AEP) and/or was previously a participant in AEP. Inspections and/or repairs may have been performed by HPD while the premises was in AEP, which may have resulted in AEP charges and/or AEP fees being assessed. Under NYC Administrative Code §27-2153, these AEP charges and fees become a tax lien against the premises and must be paid promptly when owed. If you have any questions about AEP, call (212) 863-8262.
