Your property tax payment agreement is in default due to one or more missing payments. You may reinstate your agreement by paying 20% of your total amount due or by showing that extenuating circumstances contributed to your default. Otherwise, you must wait five years for a new payment agreement and you are at risk for having your unpaid tax lien sold.

For information about the interest rate charged on late payments, visit nyc.gov/taxbill.

If you own income-producing property, you must file a Real Property Income and Expense (RPIE) statement or a claim of exclusion unless you are exempt by law. You must also file information about any ground or second floor storefront units on the premises, even if you are exempt from filing an RPIE statement. RPIE filers whose properties have an actual assessed value of $750,000 or greater will be required to file rent roll information. The deadline to file is June 1, 2021. Failure to file will result in penalties and interest, which will become a lien on your property if they go unpaid. Visit www.nyc.gov/rpie for more information.
