Did Your Mailing Address Change?

If so, please visit us at nyc.gov/changemailingaddress or call 311.

When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction.

If you own income-producing property, you must file a Real Property Income and Expense (RPIE) statement or a claim of exclusion unless you are exempt by law. You must also file information about any ground or second floor storefront units on the premises, even if you are exempt from filing an RPIE statement. RPIE filers whose properties have an actual assessed value of $750,000 or greater will be required to file rent roll information. The deadline to file is June 1, 2021. Failure to file will result in penalties and interest, which will become a lien on your property if they go unpaid. Visit www.nyc.gov/rpie for more information.

The BID assessment includes an adjustment due to a billing correction from a prior year. If you have any questions regarding BID charges, please contact the NYC Department of Small Business Services at (212) 513-6300. If you have questions about any non-BID-related charges please contact the Department of Finance by calling 311 or (212) 639-9675, or visit www.nyc.gov/finance.

The business improvement district (BID) assessment charge may include a retroactive supplemental charge for a recently authorized assessment increase for the FY21 billing period, in addition to the regular FY21 charge. If you have any questions about BID charges, please contact your BID executive director or the NYC Department of Small Business Services at (212) 513-6300. If you have questions about any non-BID-related charges, please contact the NYC Department of Finance by calling 311 or visiting www.nyc.gov/dofaccount.

If you would like a payment agreement for your outstanding property taxes, we now offer a monthly payment agreement as well as the semi-annual and quarterly agreements.
